You Do A Daisy

All the talk about what it meant for Doc Holliday to say, "You're a daisy if you do" and what daisy in that time period meant has little to do with the definition of the word daisy or deusy (doozy). It was the context of the word usage of the time. Another widely used phrase of the time was... "he's pushing up daisies", meant a person was dead. I believe Doc Holliday was meaning if you shoot at me you'll become a daisy...or you'll be pushing up daisies. In other words he meant, you will be ...
